

creating a list of Adnan's track teammates. That clerk ostensibly looked at a page from the Woodlawn yearbook that had a list of eight indoor track team members who had medaled at a certain event and turned that list into a memo created more than nine months after Hae disappeared. In creating that memo, that student/clerk failed to realize that Will was a senior in 1999, meaning that he would no longer be at Woodlawn High School in the fall of 1999.*

I think you see where this going. Whether because someone recognized Will's significance or because Will fortuitously appeared on the yearbook page, the defense tried to subpoena Will. Here is a copy of the relevant portion of Will's subpoena:

Adnan Masud Syed

Defendant

Private PROCESS

SUBPOENA

TO: William [REDACTED]
Woodlawn High School
1801 Woodlawn Drive
Baltimore, MD 21207

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED TO: (X) Personally appear; () Produce documents and/or objects only; () Personally appear and produce documents or objects;

at Courthouse East, 111 N. Calvert Street, Room 406, Pt. 27, Baltimore, MD 21202

(Place where attendance is required)

And that's how Will was never contacted: (1) Gutierrez tasks a law student/clerk with making a list of track teammates; (2) the clerk looks at the yearbook and fails to note that Will was a senior in 1999; (3) the defense sends its subpoena to Woodlawn High School despite the fact that Will has graduated, meaning he doesn't receive the subpoena; and (4) as with Krista, the defense never follows up on the subpoena, and the witness is never