[if this IS first page that suggests Jay's pre-interview story starts with the call from police when leaving Kristi's - odd, maybe suggests notes pages are missing]

[These are likely Ritz's notes of an untaped "pre-interview" on 3/15/99.

E.g. details on first notes page, 1977, about Adnan taking a call from police are similar to p 25-26 and page 63 of transcription, but in neither is Adnan described as "calm" or and the other "notes" words aren't both in one section. Moreove, on page 63 of transcribed interview Ritz refers to the "pre-interview" and prompts Jay with words that do match these notes:

Ritz: Said that, find inaudible, go over that again. During the pre, pre-interview you said um, maybe you wanna try her new boyfriend that she may be with him?

Wilds: Yes.

Ritz: And also that he and ah, Hay Lee had been broken up for awhile?

Wilds: Yes.

Similarly, at the top of p2 of these notes:"He couldn't believe he had accomplished. That's fked up." - in 3/15 interview transcription there is no use of "accomplish", or mention that Adnan "couldn't believe" anything, or use of the phrase "fked up".

Another example, from p 51 of transcribed interview

Ritz: After you go to Best Buy parking lot, you said in the, the pre-interview that there may of been a reason why he picked that particular spot?

Wilds: Yes.

Ritz: What was that reason again?

Wilds: A later learned that that's were they used to have sex.

This is the same subject as on p3 of these notes, different language used

End of discussion]

[next page in police file, p1981, likely to be Ritz's notes taken during the second interview that day, which was taped. Is similar handwriting = Ritz, but includes timing of tape recording that matches 3/15 recording transcription. Also it is on different paper to these notes and many words are drawn over repeatedly, like doodling, unlike here.]
