Redactions

Redactions shown are as applied by the State/Court. Mills was mentioned in Court during the previous day of the hearing (February 5th), by his forename only, and the State requested to continue this partial anonymity for "Officer Steve" when they presented him as a witness on Monday, February 8th, 2016. Although highly unusual, this was agreed and facilitated by the Court and Defense Counsel. However Mills did not seem to know about his apparently urgent need for personal anonymity, as he gave his full name unprompted in court when he took the witness stand. Although the press and commentators mostly continued to respect the State's request, this State's Exhibit (and St. Ex. 09) were both released with incomplete redaction of the "withheld" surname. Since the hearing, the State has repeatedly used Mr Mills' full name in public documents, without redactions.
