- 16 THE COURT: Okay, And is he in jail?
- 17 A JUROR: No. He's out now.
- 18 THE COURT: Okay. And do you believe he was

- 20 A JUROR: Yes.
- 21 THE COURT: And do you believe you could be

- 23 A JUROR: Yes, I do.

- 22 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know if they caught

- 24 A JUROR: He's been convicted.
- 25 THE COURT: And the person's convicted. Do you

- 2 A JUROR: Yes.
- 3 THE COURT: Okay. As a result of that case, do

- 7 A JUROR: Yes. I could be.
- 8 THE COURT: Any follow up, Ms. Gutierrez?
- 9 MS. GUTIERREZ: No, Your Honor.
- 10 THE COURT: Any follow up, Mr. Urick?

- 22 A JUROR: The best friend of my niece in the

- 25 THE COURT: Okay.

- 1 A JUROR: He --
- THE COURT: As to the rape. Do you believe
- 3 that -- did they catch the person who did this, the rape?
- 4 A JUROR: Actually, I believe so, I don't know.
- 5 It was kind of private. I only accidently found out from
- 6 her mother, and I didn't really ask any questions about
- 7 it because it was private.
- 8 THE COURT: Okay. And as a result of that
- 9 information being given to you, does that interfere with
- 10 your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?
- 11 A JUROR: I believe not.
- 12 THE COURT: Okay. And the second incident?
- 13 A JUROR: Second incident, and this was just

- 16 THE COURT: Shot in the back in your work-

- 20 A JUROR: Not necessarily.
- 21 THE COURT: When you say, "Not necessarily,"
- 22 you're hesitating. You just closed your eyes and shook

CondenseIt! TM Page 264 Page 266 MR. URICK: Yes. MS. GUTTERREZ: No. Juror 149, I'll note from 2 THE COURT: Ms. Gutierrez, I need you to start 2 the record is listed as being 20-years of age, which is 3 with your first strike, Juror Number 69, provide me with 3 one of the reasons when I looked down the sheet as to who 4 was coming to be sit -- to be sat, I was very surprised 4 a non-race based explanation for your justification on 5 challenging the juror? 5 although I did note that both he and allegedly his spouse. MS. GUTIERREZ: Juror Number 69 was --6 6 were both executives, at age 20 would have surprised me THE COURT: Uh-huh. And again when he was called and sat, he had MS. GUTIERREZ: - a teacher and -- and also a 8 not answered a single question. He appeared to be very. 9 factor she was a very young teacher. A number of very 9 I wouldn't quite say angry, but not happy with having 10 young teachers who will be testifying in this case who 10 been seated or called and he glared continually at me and 11 come close to being very sympathetic with Hae Min Lee. 11 my client. 12 And that's why I struck her. 12 My client specifically requested that I strike THE COURT: Okay. And that's -- Juror Number 13 149. 14 105. 14 THE COURT: All right. MS. GUTIERREZ: On Juror Number 105 it was --And Juror Number 70? 15 15 MS. GUTIERREZ: Juror Number 70, I believe was 16 appeared to be a black juror. And I struck her. She 17 works for the Division of Correction, I believe, 17 the younger white male, and I believe I struck him from 18 Correctional Services. 18 mostly because of his age. She also saw but she answered the question that THE COURT: So something --19 20 it wouldn't affect her. She saw a great deal of the news MS. GUTTERREZ: He's under 30. Well, I think 21 coverage in this case including the mother and what she 21 age is an issue in this case of how people perceive and 22 called the sister of Hae, pleading to the public during 22 what they relate too. These are teenagers, my client and 23 the early part. 23 the victim, and all of that surrounds them and other I mean, combined with the Correctional Service, 24 24 teenagers. 25 is the reason I struck her. 25 Their -- their age, I think, 29 or I have Page 265 Page 267 THE COURT: Juror Number 59, who appeared to be 1 marked anything under 30 was something that I was going 2 a white male? 2 to be concerned of with the -- the professionals as MS. GUTIERREZ: Juror Number 59 answered the 3 teachers but also anyone else. And we struck him because 4 question, and I marked with a question mark at the 4 of his age. 5 beginning about the sort of victim of crime issue and

6 indicated that someone that he placed a very great deal

7 on the friendship, I'm not sure what the relationship

8 was, but that friend, I believe was the son or a

9 daughter, and he didn't indicate what sex of the 79-year 10 old.

11 Yeah, the -- that that person, the friend's 12 father had been killed last spring in that series of 13 murders in the Guilford.

14 THE COURT: All right. Juror Number 19, who

15 appeared to be a white male?

16 MS. GUTIERREZ: Juror Number 19 -- Juror Number

17 19 answered not a single question. He was a steel worker

18 who ordinarily I would have sat, was not very happy about

19 being seated, if you recall. We sat him and only struck

20 him later in my strikes having sat him in Seat Number 3.

21 He appeared to me to be very unhappy about 22 having been sat, and kept glaring at both me and my 23 client.

24 THE COURT: All right. Juror Number 149, who

25 appeared to be a white male?

5 THE COURT: All right. And Juror 114? That's 6 the last strike.

MS. GUTIERREZ: We meant to actually strike 114

8 earlier. 114 came in to replace 69, which I stuck

9 because she was a teacher. Because he's a salesperson,

10 his age, he also did not appear to be happy to have been

11 seated or continued to be seated and so I struck him

12 right away again.

13 THE COURT: At this juncture the Court finds

14 that the defense has been able to provide a non-race

15 based justification for each of its strikes. That is all 16 that is necessary. And I find that the description and

17 the information had been readily forthcoming from Counsel

18 and she's capable of doing same.

And I will accept that explanation and deny

20 your motion. But I would admonish Counsel that I would

21 note that the appearance, as counsel for the State has

22 noted, is one where it appears that white males were

- THE COURT: Yes. Are you talking about the
- 2 main panel?
- 3 MR. URICK: No.
- 4 THE COURT: Ladies and Gentleman of the panel
- 5 that are seated out here, you may now leave with my
- 6 thanks. You have now completed your one day or one
- 7 trial. You will not be called this year.
- 8 Thank you very much for your patience.
- 9 Hand those out to the jurors.
- 10 Ladies and Gentleman of the jury, my law clerk
- 11 is going to hand you a form that will tell you where
- 12 you're supposed to be and I'll speak to you about that in
- 13 just one moment.
- 14 (Counsel and the defendant approached the
- 15 bench, and the following ensued:)
- 16 THE COURT: Yes?
- 17 MR. URICK: Earlier today the Court indicated
- 18 that they might want to do opening and maybe one witness
- 19 tomorrow. Because of that break in time between then,
- 20 however, the State would ask if for an alternate, have a
- 21 brief period tomorrow and we begin on Thursday with
- 22 opening and that.
- 23 THE COURT: With the jury?
- 24 MR. URICK: Yes.
- 25 MS. GUTIERREZ: Yes.

- THE COURT: Because we have motions to do.
- 2 MS. GUTIERREZ: Yes. I will tell you, the
- 3 motions are not going to take all morning.
- 4 THE COURT: But I still have to clean up my
- 5 docket.
- 6 MS. GUTIERREZ: Yes.
- 7 THE COURT: Make sure that that's done.
- 8 MS. GUTIERREZ: I'd ask the Court just to --
- 9 MS. MURPHY: That also gives them two days --
- 10 THE COURT: Make other arrangements.
- MS. GUTIERREZ: Make arrangements, whatever.
- 12 THE COURT: I will do that.
- 13 MR. URICK: Thank you.
- 14 MS. GUTIERREZ: Thank you.
- 15 (Counsel and the defendant returned to the
- 16 trial tables, and the following ensued:)
- 17 THE COURT: All right. Ladies and Gentleman, I
- 18 need your attention for a moment. First, I want to thank
- 19 you for your patience. I know this has been a tedious
- 20 procedure that we've been following, but believe me, we
- 21 have reasons.
- 22 And as you saw near the end, we got really
- 23 close to not having enough jurors. I must tell you that
- 24 you are in Judge Noel's courtroom. And in the envelope
- 25 is, in fact, information about me.

- 1 My name is Wanda Keyes Heard. And my courtroom
- 2 is on the third floor. But my courtroom is very small
- 3 and would not have held the number of people that were
- 4 here. So Judge Noel allowed me to use his courtroom for
- 5 jury selection.
- 6 The trial will take place, however, in my
- 7 courtroom on the third floor. And in that envelope. it
- 8 provides you with; one, the location of my courtroom;
- 9 two, the location of my jury room and also phone numbers
- 10 in the event there is a problem or a question.
- 11 We've been hearing a lot on the news about
- 12 snow. If, in fact, this courtroom is closed during the
- 13 course of this trial, WBAL TV, Channel 11, will make an
- 14 announcement. And if in doubt, you can do two things.
- 15 You can call the number that I've provided for you where
- 16 I will leave a message indicating the court is closed.
- 17 Or you may call the jury commissioner's office.
- 18 Or you can call the city operator. The city --
- 19 Baltimore City operator. And if you were to call just 0,
- 20 information, and ask for the Baltimore City operator,
- 21 that operator would tell you whether the courthouse was
- 22 closed.
- 23 So there's a number of ways you can be assured
- 24 as to whether or not this Court is open and operating.
- 25 I'm going to give you some time, Ladies and

- 1 Gentleman, to adjust your schedules and your personal
- 2 matters so that you can direct your attention to this
- 3 trial.
- As you know, it should take about two weeks --
- 5 two and a half weeks or more. And I say "or more," it
- 6 should be about two and a half weeks for us to conclude
- 7 this trial.
- 8 The reason it will take so long is that before
- 9 I can start this case each day, I must first do my own
- 10 docket. Sometimes there's only one case. Sometimes
- 11 there's three. Sometimes they give me as many as five or
- 12 six cases, and then I can go back to this trial.
- 3 So we will work through the next few days and
- 14 weeks in order to com -- complete this case to a
- 15 conclusion in the best, fast and most efficient way as I
- 16 can.
- 17 And I will advise you each day to the extent
- 18 possible what my expectation is for the next day. So let
- 19 me begin by telling you that you will not be sitting
- 20 tomorrow. There are preliminary motions we will handle,
- 21 and I will make sure that we do that and allow you some
- 22 time to take care of your personal matters.
- On Wednesday I have a funeral and my docket.
- 24 There's no way that I will sit on Wednesday. So you now
- 25 have tomorrow and Wednesday to make whatever personal

Page 295

- 1 arrangements you need to do in your personal affairs so
- 2 that folks will know that for the next two weeks stating
- 3 Thursday, you will have to follow the following
- 4 procedure.
- 5 At nine o'clock each day you will report to the
- 6 jury commissioner across the street and be paid. By 9:30
- 7 you will return to my jury room -- not my courtroom, but
- 8 my jury room. That room number is noted on the paper you
- 9 have. That door will be unlocked.
- You are welcome to bring coffee or doughnuts or
- 11 whatever with you. Because as I said, I will be doing my
- 12 docket for at least the first hour. There are two
- 13 bathrooms in that room. And you will remain there until
- 14 I bring you to the courtroom.
- 15 Madam Forelady, Juror Number 1, it is going to
- 16 be your duty each morning to count heads, to make sure
- 17 that 12 jurors plus the five alternates are present.
- 18 Deputy Church, who is the bald-headed
- 19 gentleman, my law clerk Ms. Connelly, Mr. White, who was
- 20 the gentleman calling the -- "acceptable," asking you to
- 21 step up, will be the individuals who will come to the
- 22 door of the jury room and ask you, Madam Forelady, is
- 23 everyone present?"
- 24 And if there's not someone present, I need to
- 25 know ny juror number, who's missing. You each now have a

- 1 want to know all about it.
- 2 You're going to tell them, "I'm sorry. When
- 3 the case is over I can talk to you. But for right now
- 4 Judge Heard has admonished me not to have any discussion.
- 5 You can't discuss this case amongst yourselves
- 6 until the end when I tell you so. To do so would be
- 7 improper. So therefore I must admonish you, do not
- 8 discuss this case amongst yourselves.
- 9 You cannot discuss the case with anyone else.
- 10 the media or anyone or any witnesses or prospective
- 11 witnesses in this case or even the attorneys themselves.
- 12 And Ladies and Gentleman in front of you I'm
- 13 going to tell the attorneys, Ms. Murphy, Mr. Urick, Ms.
- 14 Gutierrez, Mr. Syed, have no contact with my jurors.
- 15 Do not talk to them. If you happen to see them
- 16 in the hallway, go the other way. Catch the next
- 17 elevator. I don't even want you to say good morning.
- 18 Now, Ladies and Gentleman, they're not rude.
- 19 If they go the other way or they turn their way and they
- 20 do not speak to you, they've been directed by me not to
- 21 do that. And I'm also going to tell you to tell your
- 22 witnesses that they should have no contact with my jury
- 23 whatsoever.
- 24 And, Ladies and Gentleman, if you happen to see
- 25 someone who looks at the ceiling or turns away, or says,

Page 293

- I new juror number; I through 6 on the back row, 7 through
- 2 12 and then jurors alternates 1 through 5.
- 3 Those are the numbers that will be referred to.
- 4 And when you come into my courtroom each day, you will
- 5 find a pad of paper for you to take notes. And it will
- 6 have your juror number on the back so you'll know what
- 7 seat to sit in.
- 8 As I said, the courtroom there is very small.
- 9 And you'll see when you arrive that's it's a little
- 10 different.
- 11 Now there's one other thing I must admonish
- 12 you. On Thursday you will hear opening statements from
- 13 each of the attorneys, from the State and from the
- 14 defense, or the purposes of giving you a road map, how
- 15 they expect this case to proceed.
- 16 You will also hear from me. I will give you
- 17 some more preliminary remarks to start your understanding
- 18 as to what you're supposed to do and what your duties
- 19 are. Until then, Thursday morning at 9:30, you may not
- 20 discuss this case with anyone.
- 21 You haven't heard anything. You haven't heard
- 22 any witnesses. You haven't heard any testimony. You
- 23 haven't heard anything to discuss. So therefore you must
- 24 not discuss this case with anyone at all. You must not
- 25 discuss it with your family and friends who are going to

- I "I'll catch the next elevator," it could be that they are
- 2 one of the many witnesses and they are staying away from
- 3 you.
- 4 Understand, no contact whatsoever should be
- 5 made. But should someone talk to you, either one of the
- 6 jurors, or a witness, or anyone that attempts to talk to
- 7 you about the case, please advise Ms. Connolly or my
- 8 courtroom clerk or the deputy sheriff. And they will
- 9 tell me, and we will decide how we will handle that. And
- 10 -- and let you know how that will be handled.
  - I do not tolerate any contact with my jurors.
- 12 Because it is important that you understand that you must
- 13 remain fair and impartial. You should not make any
- 14 decisions about this case till after you've heard the
- 15 entire case and after you've heard closing argument of
- 16 counsel and after you've been instructed by me as to the 17 law.
- And one last thing, after you've talked to one
- 19 another, and deliberated, and that -- and only then,
- 20 should you have a decision about this case. So until
- 21 then, I need you to admonish you to try to follow my 22 preliminary remarks.
- On Thursday at 9:30 you will return to my jury
- 24 room. Use these two days to make whatever personal
- 25 arrangements you may need to make in order to free
