

Private Detective Andrew Davis responded to the Woodlawn Senior High School

Gymnasium for a memorial service held in honor of Hae Min Lee scheduled for 2:30.

During the ceremony, Aisha [REDACTED], Debbie [REDACTED] and Becky [REDACTED] all spoke in reference to the special memories they had of Hae Min Lee. Becky [REDACTED] in her speech advised that she was Hae's best friend and read an e-mail that Hae had sent her during the summer of 1998 in reference to the hard times Becky was going through in losing a loved one. Debbie [REDACTED] stated that Hae confided in her more than anyone else and Aisha [REDACTED] said that Hae was her best friend, like a sister to her.

After the ceremony, PD Davis was able to re-interview Stephanie [REDACTED], Ms. [REDACTED] advised PD Davis that she now remembers speaking to Jay and Adnan on January 13, 1999 between 4:15 and 5:30 p.m. She advised that she called Adnan on his cell phone and Jay was with him at the time. Ms. [REDACTED] advised that she was at Parkville High School waiting to play her basketball game and was bored so her and some fellow teammates began to make phone calls. Again, she believed it was between 4:15 and 5:30 p.m. She could not provide any other information about where Adnan and Jay were nor what they were doing.

PD Davis was also able to obtain a tag number of [REDACTED] displayed on a Toyota Camary which appeared to belong to Hae's grandfather.
