Sir:

On February 12, 1999, approx. 1519 Hrs., your writer received a call from an anonymous caller (Asian Male 18-21 years old) who advised investigators, should concentrate on the victim's boyfriend (Adna Ansyed A/M/17) as a suspect in the murder. The caller further advised the boyfriend has taken the victim to Leakin Park on past occasions for sexual encounter. Prior to concluding the phone interview, the caller further stated the victim broke of the relationship with her boyfriend about a week before she was reported missing.

At this point the caller terminated the conversation, simultaneously your writer activated *57 on ext. 2100. The recording informed your writer; the service was not available due to the caller not being in the service area.

On February 12, 1999, approx. 1525 Hrs., the above anonymous person again called the Homicide Unit. This time that caller remember about a year ago, the suspect informed a friend of his (Baser Ali A/M/17), if he ever hurt his girlfriend, he would drive her car into a lake. The caller stated the suspect's friend attends Centennial High School in Columbia, Maryland, and his home phone # [REDACTED]. Again *57 was activated, the recording stated the service was not available due to the caller not being in the service area.

Respectfully,

Detective Darryl Massey
