About 2-3 wks after initial disappearance, Ms Struckey warned
 O to be careful, will be asked ques, think bt speak, took to see principal who gave similar advice + said PO should come here and I will volunteer to stay w/

Senior yr. guidance counselor, 1st gives GPA + then works w/ college staff. Ms. Struckey = guidance counselor. When O broke up, O didn't do his Eng assignment. Eng teacher told Ms Struckey
 + Ms. Struckey went to O + said relationship happens, its ok.

O would write letters about tea from his mom saying he had a doc appt. (Mom knew these forged documents)

△ never told anyone he was born in 80 but always said 81. In fact, jail questioned him on that.

Ms Schaub = french teacher (Mae's teacher's aid <sup>for</sup> French).
 △ thinks she had alot to do w/ △ breaking up. △ thinks another part of break up was raw b/f drove brand new ~~car~~ green. She was very superficial + would brag about her b/f driving BMW's, etc.

Mae's friends Asha Pittman + Debra Warren know Mae best.
~~Mae~~ said a ~~year~~ prior b/f died in California in a car crash "Mike" (△ not know last name). △ ~~tho~~ not know where Mae was in Calif. but knows she was near no ~~water~~ beaches.
 Mae's best friend "Salce" died of cancer in Ga. (not know last name or where in Ga.) both men were older than her. Mike died when she was in 10th grade. Mae was out in Calif from about end of 9th grade until middle of 10th grade around December.

Page 1 had previously been published on February 12 2016, shortly after the "PCR" hearing. Several pictures of the page were posted on Twitter by Justin Fenton, a journalist covering the case for local paper The Baltimore Sun. This was a quick fire response to a retweet by Susan Simpson - she was commenting on the State's arguments at trial, as reported by Fenton via Twitter. Within 24 hours he had deleted the tweet and attached pictures. He did not attempt to post any "unpublished" material in support of Adnan's case. Screenshots of the deleted tweets can be seen here <http://imgur.com/a/5717f>
